DUEF

- Four different levels: A2, B1, B2, C1
- A diploma recognized by more than 20 French Universities
- An intensive teaching course to prepare you for general and university based French
- Several levels, each of which is prepared and validated in one semester.
- Access to both digital and library resources
- Group activities and visits (culinary discovery, written games, exhibitions, etc.) offered every semester
- Free access to evening classes to further improve or discover another language other than French.

Obtaining the diploma at level B2 or C1 allows you to continue university studies in France without having to take a language test.
